

My Everything

Sometimes my life feels like crushing down,
It feels like I'm dead but still alive,
I can feel the pain but I can't take it away,
It hurts so much that I can't describe it,
I'm so tired of waiting, I'm so sick of all the excuses,
I hardly hear you anymore,
You're like a whisper in my ear,
I can see your mouth moving fast and angry,
I know that you're yelling at me,
But I can't hear you anymore,
It has gone so far that I don't care anymore,
I just close my ears and eyes,
And all I can see is my love,
He is standing in front of me and smiling to me,
I feel the heartbeat in me,
I feel the butterflies in my stomach,
I love the feeling I get when I see him, because... he is my everything 3
