

All the spirits on earth is lost
Struggel for mearcey every day
Life is such a lonly place to play
Never I se the signs of the human clay
No longer pepole finds the way
To open the gate they must start to pray

Ref:

Semeterygates wide open
Cold and heat is reunited
Sweet dreams is lockt away
The walking dead is released
Face the pladge that comes upon us
The pladge that soon will rule this earth
Stair in to the face of the pladge

It feels like I crossifide
All the pain that burns inside
Wher all this bold come from I cant realise
All the things I done I can no longer hide
It's long sinse i lost my pride
So i got nothing to confide

Face the pladge that comes upon us
The pladge that soon will rule this earth
Stair in to the face of the pladge

Huger and pain it drives me insain
Its floding around deep in my vaines
Sratching and sreaming, feeling the darkness
Its the devil im fealing, crawl across my silnig
Do you feel the wind, hunting you from behind
Did you forget to close the gate
And now all you get is hate
Thinking they will never forgive you
